Al Neil now

THE New Orchestra Workshop (NOW) has put together the ultimate tribute band (Gregg Simpson on drums, Clyde Reed on bass, Paul Plimley on piano, Giorgio Magnanensi on samples and performance poetry by Kederick James) to pay homage to the 60-year career of longtime Deep Cove resident Al Neil (above) at the Roundhouse, Thursday, Nov. 10. The performance is one of a series of events scheduled as part of The Al Neil Project. On Nov. 25 the Vancouver Art Gallery will focus on Neil's history in performance art.
