I did not receive the letter until after the Victorian affair arrived in my office with 3 tablets.

I had not been informed the 3 tablets were coming to this place.

I asked Dr. Briggs to take 3 tablets back to Victoria - as I was under medical care for kidney condition and could not leave this city -

Memorandum to Insp. J.F.C.B. Vance, P.B.S.

The Deputy Chief Constable of Victoria telephoned me this morning requesting our assistance in the investigation of a case occurring in that City. Detective Briggs of the Victoria Force will be arriving here tomorrow morning with certain evidence for examination, and I would appreciate it if you would give whatever assistance you can in the matter.

W. H. Mulligan
Chief Constable.
