Dear Mr Vance:-

I wonder if you could establish the age of the signatures on the Contract I am enclosing?

The reason I am asking this, is, because my landlady is trying to evict me because she says I have ~~[illegible]~~ broken it because my sister came to visit me last year & stayed 6 weeks, but, I do not charge my relatives room & board.

Re - the contract, mrs. Nash insisted my husband & I sign same, although she did not have a witness there; & the witness did not attach his signature until 1 year later, nor did Mrs. Nash place this contract in my hands until late Feb. this year (1949)

now Mr Vance can you prove the signatures are one year apart by the age of the ink? I hope so, as I believe science can accomplish such things now – if not – will you please let me know any one who can.

Please send me a bill for your fee, and return contract in Enclosed, self-addressed envelope;

Thanking you for your kindness

Yours Truly.

P.S. my husband is a quartermaster on a coast freighter & I home to attend to all business.

P. P. S.

I believe such an act as having this contract signed without the proper witness present when my husband + I signed, makes said contract void.
